Jackson Lewis, PC

William J. Anthony

Practicing in: Class Actions & Complex Litigation

William J. Anthony is a Principal in the Albany, New York, and Hartford, Connecticut, offices of Jackson Lewis P.C. He is Co-Leader of the Class Actions and Complex Litigation Practice Group, and is a member of the firm's Board of Directors. Upon graduation from law school, Mr. Anthony joined the San Francisco office of Jackson Lewis. He transferred to the firm's Morristown office in 1991, the Hartford office in 2000, and moved to the Albany office in 2012. While at the Hartford office, Mr. Anthony served as Managing Partner from 2000 to 2008.

Mr. Anthony has been defending employment claims for almost twenty-five years in a number of federal and state courts around the country. He has helped clients obtain many dismissals and favorable results during that time.

Mr. Anthony advises clients on the full range of employment law issues and provides training on management skills, discrimination, harassment, wage/hour and disabilities management issues.

Jackson Lewis, PC

Brian P. Goldstein

Practicing in: Employee Benefits

Mr. Goldstein's practice spans from Alaska to Puerto Rico and all across the United States, and concentrates in the areas of executive compensation, employee benefits, and ERISA fiduciary counseling.

For over 25 years, he has been involved in the design and implementation of all types of pension, profit sharing, 401(k), employee stock ownership, stock-based compensation, nonqualified deferred compensation and tax-sheltered annuity plans, as well as various medical, vacation, severance, cafeteria, post-retirement and other health-and-welfare and fringe benefit plans.

Mr. Goldstein's client base varies widely, and includes large public companies, institutional plan fiduciaries, professional practices and small businesses. He serves as counsel to a number of bank trust departments across the nation, advising them on their ERISA fiduciary responsibilities and on qualified and nonqualified plan issues (including document preparation and operational issues).
